

EMBASSY OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA
WASHINGTON, D. C.

KAM 98/256

The Embassy of the Republic of Korea presents its compliments to the Department of State of the United States of America and, with reference to the Agreement Relating to Scientific and Technical Cooperation Between the Government of the Republic of Korea and the Government of the United States of America, signed on 6 January 1992 and entered into force on 29 July 1993 for a five-year period, has the honour to propose on behalf of the Government of the Republic of Korea that, pursuant to Article XI thereof, the said Agreement be extended for six months, effective from 29 July 1998.

If the above proposal is acceptable to the Government of the United States of America, the Embassy proposes that this note and the Department's note in reply shall constitute an agreement between the two governments to extend the aforesaid Agreement for six months, which shall enter into force on the date of the Department's reply and shall be effective from 29 July 1998.

The Embassy of the Republic of Korea avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Department of State of the United States of America the assurances of its highest consideration.

Washington, D.C., 21 July 1998

The Department of State refers the Embassy of the Republic of Korea to the latter's note of 21 July 1998 which reads as follows:

"KAM 98/256

"The Embassy of the Republic of Korea presents its compliments to the Department of State of the United States of America and, with reference to the Agreement Relating to Scientific and Technical Cooperation Between the Government of the Republic of Korea and the Government of the United States of America, signed on 6 January 1992 and entered into force on 29 July 1993 for a five-year period, has the honour to propose on behalf of the Government of the Republic of Korea that, pursuant to Article XI thereof, the said Agreement be extended for six months, effective from 29 July 1998.

"If the above proposal is acceptable to the Government of the United States of America, the Embassy proposes that this note and the Department's note in reply shall constitute an agreement between the two governments to extend the aforesaid Agreement for six months, which shall enter into force on the date of the Department's reply and shall be effective from 29 July 1998.

"The Embassy of the Republic of Korea avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Department of State of the United States of America the assurances of its highest consideration.

"Washington, D.C., 21 July 1998."

The Department of State confirms that the proposal contained in the Embassy's note is acceptable to the Government of the United States of America and that this reply, together with the Embassy's note, shall constitute an agreement between the two Governments to extend the aforesaid Agreement for six months which shall enter into force on today's date and shall be effective from 29 July 1998.
